

2010 Membership Information

In 2010 Sport Climbing Australia (SCA) will offer three classes of membership.

Individuals:

Full Member Cost $10

Full Member: a person of any age who wishes to compete in any competitions sanctioned by the SCA or a person who would like to support the sport of climbing in Australia. A person of 15 years of age or more has voting rights in matters pertaining to the association. Any person may be a member of this category.

Facilities:

Registered Climbing Facility Cost $150

Registered Climbing Facility: a person owning or operating a climbing facility may be a member of the association under this category.

Registered Non-Profit Climbing Facility Cost $100

Registered Non-Profit Climbing Facility: a person owning or operating a climbing facility which is not a commercial operation, e.g. community or school based climbing walls.

Please note that there is a separate form for these membership category and facilities will be required to meet the 'facility membership registration requirements' as outlined by the SCA.

A person may be a member in more than one class of membership but shall be limited to holding one vote in any voting process.

Members have the following rights:

- (a) Full Member and Registered Climbing Facility Members have the right to participate and vote in processes of the association as outlined in the SCA constitution.
- (b) Full Members have the right to compete in competitions sanctioned by the SCA.
- (c) Full Members have the right to compete in a sanctioned competition within the rules and entry requirements stipulated for any particular event. Full Members under 15 years of age do not have the right to vote in association processes.
- (d) The person registering with SCA under either Registered Climbing Facility or Registered Non-Profit Climbing Facility are able to compete in any SCA sanctioned event providing all other entry requirements are met.
- (e) Supporting Members are valued financial supports of the SCA. They are not registered or able to compete in sanctioned competitions unless completing a relevant Full or Registered facility member form and submitting with the appropriate fee.

2010 Membership is valid for one Calendar year or part thereof payable as of 1st of January. The same fee is payable for any joining date in 2010 and all memberships will expire as of 31st December 2010.

Members will be eligible to receive:

- Individual member newsletter and updates
- Voting rights (dependent upon level of membership)
- Email contact regarding up and coming competitions
- Email contact from competition organisers and sponsors regarding events
- Ranking points once the National system is introduced.
- Consideration for selection in development and representative squads.
