SPORT CLIMBING AUSTRALIA

1 Structure

1.1 Disciplines

- Lead: Climbs ('Routes') are climbed with the competitor clipping into protection points as they climb (on "Lead"). Progression along the line of the route determines a competitor's ranking.
- Bouldering: Short climbs ('Boulders') are attempted without ropes but with landing mats for protection. The number of boulders completed determines a competitor's ranking.
- Speed: Climbs are attempted with an in-situ rope (on "Top-Rope"). The time to complete the route determines a competitor's ranking.

1.2 Competition in Australia

- Regional events and competitions: These events are organized by climbing facilities and/or SCA Member States. Rules and governance of these events is at the discretion of the organiser. The Youth event and Open event may be held at different dates.
- State Titles: State Titles may be held in each state once a year for each discipline. All SCA Guidelines and Policies apply to these events. It is possible for a competition to be held as a multiple state competition. In that case, podiums and ranking points will be split. The Youth event and Open event may be held at different dates.
- National Championships: National Championships are held once a year. All SCA Guidelines and Policies apply to these events. The Youth event and Open event may be held at different dates.

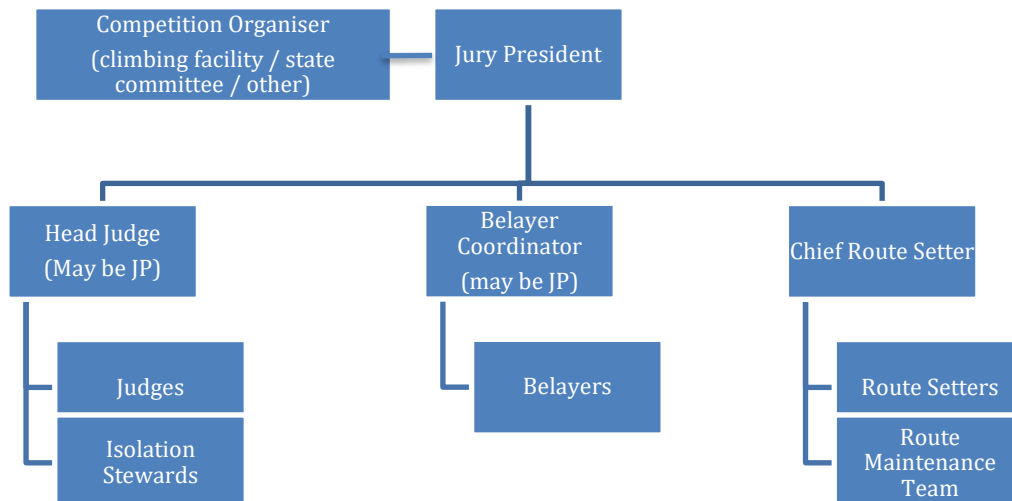

1.3 Rules and Policies

Rules for the three disciplines are the official Sport Climbing Australia Rules. These can be found at sportclimbingaustralia.com.au. The speed rules are not yet written and SCA uses the official IFSC rules as a guideline.

SPORT CLIMBING AUSTRALIA

1.4 Officials Hierarchy (state and national events)

The Jury president (JP) has overall authority in the competition area. The JP works closely to Head Judge, Belay Coordinator and Chief Route Setters. Some events may not have a Head Judge or Belay Coordinator. In that case the Jury President will take these roles.

1.5 Membership Requirements

All participants in an SCA sanctioned event in a specific calendar year must have a valid Sport Climbing Australia membership for this calendar year prior to the commencement of the event. Any participant failing to do so will have their Ranking Points, Titles and Medal revoked. They will also not appear in the result sheet for the event.

A State level membership is required for participating in the State Title. An individual with a state membership is only allowed to participate in the state title of the state that they have declared as their state of affiliation.

A National level membership is required for participating in to other state titles than the one of affiliation, National, Continental and International Championships.

1.6 Anti-Doping

- SCA will endeavor to conduct drug testing through the services of ASADA at one or more state or national event each year. ASADA will be conducting random drug testing at national competitions.
